

“The Happy Wonderer”

We are all Dominicans
We come from coast to coast
We're proud of our humility
So it's hard for us to boast!

*Val-da-ree, val-da-rah,
Val-da-ree, val-da-rah ha-ha-ha-ha-ha
Val-da-ree, val-da-rah*

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!

We all have shared our stories
Corporate histories have been told
It's like an ancient soap opera
The not-so-young, the restless and the bold!

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!

We gather near St. Louis arch
Our ideas to debate
We're praying for a quick breakthrough
'Cause we're much too old to wait!

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!

Clustering, re-structuring
Re-configuration
Oh please!
It's enough to make a normal soul
Want to join the SNDs!

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!

We really are a bit confused
We don't understand the task
Whoever thought of this idea
Needs a swift boot in the ...

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!

We all agree that clustering
Should be here to stay
As long as at the end of it
Each one has her own way!

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!

Now lest you think we're way too bold
This song was just in jest
We know that Father Dominic
Will fix this holy mess!

Chorus: Clustering is our cry!
