

Don Goergen, OP, is a Dominican friar of the Central Province and a member of the Friends of God Dominican Ashram Community (Kenosha, Wisconsin). He holds advanced degrees in Theology and Systematic Theology and has done post-graduate work in clinical pastoral education and research on Bergson, Teilhard de Chardin, and New Testament Christology. As a professor of theology and religious studies, Don has served on the faculties of respected institutions and is a well-known author and lecturer. For nine years, he served as Prior Provincial for the Province of St. Albert the Great and has held leadership roles at Aquinas Institute (Dubuque, Iowa), the Parable conference for Dominican Life and Mission, and the Walter Farrell Institute for Theological Reflection.