

Saturday Sung Morning Prayer

(Based on Dominican Praise)

Introduction:

Psalm 63 from Dominican Praise

1 O God, my God, it is you I seek.
My soul thirsts for you;
my flesh yearns for you,
like dried, worn out land.—
So I look for you in your holy dwelling, in search of your strength and majesty.

2 Your loving kindness is better than life;
my lips sing your praise.
All my life I will bless you,
lift up my hands and call your name.—
I am filled at your table of plenty and will sing your praise with joy.

1 On my bed I remember you,
I think of you all night long.
You are my help;
I rejoice under the shadow of your wings.—
As my soul clings to you,
you hold me with your strong right hand.

All: Glory to You, Source of all being,
Eternal Word and Holy Spirit,
As it was in the beginning,
Is now and will be forever. Amen. [Repeat Antiphon]

Closing Prayer:

All: Gracious and merciful God, drive from us whatever things are harmful
and make us ready in body, mind, and spirit,
to accomplish your will,
and to participate in your saving mission
in perfect freedom.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God forever. Amen
